Antony Korteweg was one of a group of settlers, cultivating the then recently reclaimed polder of Stellendam. He was married in the town of Dinteloord. The church marriage register of Dinteloord told me that he was born in the small town of "Hoge en Lage Zwaluwe" (high and low swallow). The registration in the baptismal register in that town reads: "Illegitimate child Antony Korteweg. Father as is told: Antony Korteweg. Mother: Maayke Marinus van der Graff. Birth 26 Oct., baptism 9 Nov. 1738." I am very sure that this father can be no other than Anthony Korteweg, born 16 Dec. 1717 in Klundert. Klundert is only 7 miles from H. en L. Zwaluwe.
